

All Through the Night

Old Welsh
Quietly. mf

David Owen

1. Sleep, my child, and peace at-tend thee All through the night; Guard-ian an-gels
2. While the moon her watch is keep-ing All through the night; While the wea-ry

The first system of the score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The music is written in a simple, homophonic style with block chords and moving lines.

God will send thee, All through the night, Soft the drow-sy hours are creep-ing, world is sleep-ing All through the night. O'er thy spir-it gen-tly steal-ing,

The second system continues the musical notation with two staves. The lyrics are positioned between the staves. The music maintains the same key signature and time signature as the first system.

Hill and vale in slum-ber steep-ing, I my lov-ing vig-il keep-ing All through the night.
Vi-sions of de-light re-veal-ing, Breathes a pure and ho-ly feel-ing, All through the night.

The third system concludes the piece with two staves. The lyrics are positioned between the staves. The music maintains the same key signature and time signature as the previous systems.
