

David Dodson
 from Kallet, Epstein, Cicone
 Heartwalk

Farthest Field

1

1. There is a land High on a hill
 2. The sun will rise, The sun will set
 3. I know one day I'll leave my home

1. There is a land High on a hill Where I am
 2. The sun will rise, The sun will set A- cross the
 3. I know one day I'll leave my home here in the 6

go - ing There is a voice that calls to me.
 moun - tains And we will live with beau - ty there.
 val - ley And climb up to that field so fair

11

The air is sweet The grass-es wave
 The fra- grant flowers, The days and hours
 And when I'm called And count-ed in

The air is sweet The grass-es wave, the wind is
 The fra- grant flowers, The days and hours will not be
 And when I'm called And count-ed in that fi - nal

16

blow - ing a - way up in the far - thest field.
 coun - ted and peace - ful songs will fill the air.
 tal - ly I know that I will see you there.

(After each verse,
 sing chorus
 on next page.)

21

Chorus

Walk with me and we will see the mys - te - ry re veal ed.

25

when one day we wend our way up to the far - thest field.

Verse 4 (slightly different)

Oh my dear friends I tru - ly love Oh my dear friends I tru - ly love to hear your voi - ces Lift ed up in ra - diant song

Tho thru the years We all have made Tho thru the years We all have made our sep - arate choi - ces we've end - ed here where we be - long.